Tuesday, July 11, 2017 6:30 pm - 8:30 pm CCR&R	Let's Talk About That! Positive Language & Interactions with Preschoolers Liz Tuttle Quality Enhancement Coordinator	How is the communication in your program? How much of the talking done in your classroom is positive versus negative? Are the interactions with children forced or meaningful? Join us as we learn ways to provide positive verbal and non-verbal communication as well as interactions that are meaningful and beneficial for children. Simple communication strategies that are easy to implement will be provided!	Cost: $6.00 for CCR&R Library Members/$8.00 for non-members Credit: 2 CHCs
Thursday, July 13, 2017 6:30 pm - 8:30 pm CCR&R	Transitions: Change Is Hard! But It Doesn't Have To Hurt Sonia Sumner Regional Behavioral Specialist	Experts estimate that 20-30% of a young child's day involves transitioning from one activity to another. That's a lot of moving and a lot of wasted time! Unless teachers plan transitions as carefully and intentionally as they plan the rest of their day, that time can be stressful and frustrating for teachers and children alike. Participants will identify the transitions in their daily schedule, determine ways to eliminate some transitions, and learn strategies to support smooth transitions.	Cost: $6.00 for CCR&R Library Members/$8.00 for non-members Credit: 2 CHCs
Wednesday, July 19, 2017 6:30 pm - 8:30 pm CCR&R	Temperament of Infants and Toddlers: Understanding and Supporting Individual Differences Bonnie Gould, Infant Toddler Specialist	We all have our own way of adapting and responding to the world around us. Are you distractible or persistent, sensitive or easy going? These characteristics describe temperament. During this workshop, we'll learn about 9 temperament traits and 3 large categories used to describe most infants and toddlers. Strategies on how to care for children based on their temperament type will be shared. We will also discuss the "goodness of fit" between your own temperament and the infants and toddlers in your care and explore the role of culture as it relates to temperament. By understanding temperament, caregivers can provide the supports needed to help every infant and toddler feel safe and secure in the child care setting. This training provides information that supports the ITERS-R subscales: Space and Furnishings, Listening and Talking, Interactions and Program Structure.	Cost: $6.00 for CCR&R Library Members/$8.00 for non-members Credit: 2 CHCs

Thursday, September 21, 2017 6:30 pm - 8:30 pm CCR&R	Self Management: Please, Teach Me What To Do Sonia Sumner Regional Behavioral Specialist	Learning new skills is hard, and when you're a preschooler every skill is new. Learning to manage your own behavior can be the hardest skill of all. Teaching self-management can be an intensive process, but it's a skill that is crucial to kindergarten readiness. When children can navigate the classroom with minimal adult assistance, they learn to take ownership of their own actions and choices, they treat others better, and are better able to calm themselves and to problem solve. Come learn the five steps to teaching self-management skills so you and your children can reap the benefits.	Cost: $6.00 for CCR&R Library Members/ $8.00 for non-members Credit: 2 CHCs
Tuesday, September 26, 2017 6:30 pm - 8:30 pm CCR&R	Language & Communication Bonnie Gould Infant/Toddler Specialist	The amount and quality of language infants and toddlers hear has a critical impact on their communication skills. Beginning at birth, infants develop language skills in the context of nurturing and responsive relationships. In this training, we will identify the stages of communication and language development in children birth to three. Participants will begin to recognize that a literacy-rich environment for infants and toddlers builds the foundation for later reading and writing.	Cost: $6.00 for CCR&R Library Members/$8.00 for non-members Credit: 2 CHCs
