Tuesday, January 23, 2018 6:30 pm - 8:30 pm CCR&R	Social & Emotional Milestones- Birth to 36 Months: Building Blocks for Future Learning Natalie Shirley Infant/Toddler Specialist	First everything is “mine”, then children learn to take turns, and eventually they learn to share. For infants and toddlers this learning happens through relationships and includes developing a sense of self, a sense of self with others, and learning about feelings. All children need an emotionally secure environment that supports healthy development in this learning domain. This workshop examines social/emotional competence as a vital component of later school readiness. Participants will learn how a responsive caregiver can help the youngest of our children form secure attachments, learn to navigate feelings and emotions, and begin to develop self-regulation and social skills, the building blocks for future learning. This training provides information that supports the ITERS-R subscales: Listening and Talking and Interactions.	Cost: $6.00 for CCR&R Library Members/$8.00 for non-members Credit: 2 CHCs

A significant percentage of teachers report more challenging behaviors in their classroom and frustration in their knowledge and ability to work with these children. At the same time, skills once expected in kindergarten are being pushed down into preschool, so demands on teachers and children are higher. Play is disappearing. Forty years of research says play equals learning. In this session, we will PLAY as we discuss the importance of play for all children, how play can serve as an intervention for children with challenging behavior, Dr. Stanley Greenspan's Floortime concept, how play meets developmentally appropriate learning goals, and creative ways teachers can explain the importance of play to parents.	Cost: $20.00 for CCR&R Library Members/$25.00 for non-members Credit: .5 CEUs Minimum of 10 Participants required.
